

Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) Privacy Notice Summary

We collect personal information from you for reasons that are explained in our privacy statement. We may be required to collect some personal information by law or by organizations that give us money to operate this program. The personal information that we collect is important to run our programs, to improve services for persons experiencing homelessness, and to better understand their needs. We only collect the information that is necessary to meet the needs of persons experiencing homelessness.