County Executive Dahlkemper invites public to virtual State of the County address

Erie, PA – County Executive Kathy Dahlkemper invites the public to watch her deliver the State of the County address on Thursday, Jan. 28, at 1 p.m. by tuning in to the county's Facebook page or a local news station.

She will update residents on county government's progress over the past year and provide a look at the year ahead.

Following her presentation, County Executive Dahlkemper will spend a few minutes responding to questions from media and the public.

The public is invited to submit questions about the state of the county until 11:59 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 26, at <https://eriecountypa.gov/departments/county-executives-office/state-of-the-county/>.

Submitted questions will be asked through a moderator. Due to the high volume of questions, not all questions will be addressed during the presentation.

"I have always believed the best conversations are inspired by questions we get from our community," Dahlkemper said. "I continue to look for new ways to engage with our residents, so I hope these residents will take advantage of this opportunity to get their important questions answered."
