Electronic Poll Books to Be Unveiled During Public Event at Blasco Library

Date: Wednesday, October 11
Time: 2:00 PM – 6:00 PM
Venue: Blasco Library, Admiral Room
160 E. Front St., Erie, PA 16507

The Erie County Board of Elections is pleased to announce a public event unveiling the new Electronic Poll Books. The event will take place on Wednesday October 11 from 2:00pm-6:00pm at Blasco Library. Election Staff will be on hand to guide attendees through the features of the new Electronic Poll Books and address any inquiries. This initiative is part of an ongoing commitment towards ensuring a seamless and informed voting process for Erie County residents. All 149 voting precincts will utilize at least two Electronic Poll Books in the upcoming November 7th Municipal Election. Electronic Poll Books will be used in lieu of paper poll books for a more efficient check-in process increasing accuracy and transparency, and reducing wait times.

Voters who are unable to attend the event may also preview the new technology by visiting the Elections Office at the Erie County Courthouse, 140 W. 6th Street, Room 112, Erie, PA 16501, during regular business hours.
