COUNTY EXECUTIVE DAVIS ANNOUNCES FIRST TWO OF SERIES OF COUNTYWIDE BUDGET TALKS

ERIE, PA – Erie County Executive Brenton Davis will be taking his proposed budget across the county for a series of public discussions. These County Executive Budget Talks will provide an opportunity for Erie County residents to hear firsthand how the proposed budget will impact their communities. Attendees will have the chance to ask questions and engage in dialogue with County Executive Davis about key areas such as economic development, public safety, infrastructure, and more.

10/8/24: 6:00PM – 7:00PM

Location: Union City Fire Social Hall - 50 2nd Ave Union City, PA 16438

10/10/24: 6:00PM – 7:00PM

Location: Corry Community Center - 15 S 1st Ave Corry, PA 16407

These talks will serve as a vital platform for transparent communication and community engagement, giving all Erie County residents an opportunity to be informed and involved in the budgeting process that will shape the county's future.

More dates and locations will be announced as they are confirmed.
